

Thomas

When I first came to St Augustines I was nervous about getting lost in such a big school and finding my way around, but the teachers and other pupils will always help you. Before you know it, you know the school inside out and I settled in very quickly.